

WMBT Terms and Conditions

1. The following details the terms and conditions that should be adhered to when visiting this website.

1a. West Midlands Bus Timetables (hereinafter referred to as 'WMBT') offers searching, browsing & downloading of public transport bus timetables relating to services in the West Midlands. Whilst WMBT will try and maintain that all information relating to service changes, service disruptions and timetable information is correct, WMBT cannot be held responsible for any errors or discrepancies on the information that is published within this website.

1b. WMBT cannot be held responsible for any late, missed journeys or changes to the line of normal route on any journeys made by you, which have occurred by the operator or due to road works. This is not the responsibility of WMBT to ensure that any routes are operating correctly but it is the responsibility of the operators who run these services. WMBT does not have any connection with service operators and do NOT operate any services, we also do NOT manage or run any bus stations or interchanges; these are run by Transport for West Midlands (TfWM). This site is unofficial and only serves to provide timetables for bus services operated in the West Midlands.

1c. Any special journeys that you are planning or you have to make for any special connections, WMBT recommends that you contact the operator of the service you may use beforehand, to ensure that the services you may use are still operating according to the information supplied within this website - again, WMBT cannot be held responsible for any errors that may have occurred on the information published in this site. Contact details can be found via our Official Public Transport Websites page.

1d. If you have any queries, comments or complaints about this website or about any item or information that is published in this website, please feel free to contact the webmaster via the Contact Us facility on the Home page. If you want to leave general feedback or ideas for the website, this would be appreciated.

1e. If you have any complaints regarding the operations of any bus services in the West Midlands area, please contact the operator/s of the bus service/s involved, as we are not responsible for any such services and we will not therefore be able to rectify any problems encountered.

1f. If you have any complaints regarding any bus stations/interchanges in the West Midlands area, please contact Transport for West Midlands, as we are not responsible for any bus station/interchange issues and we will not therefore be able to rectify any problems encountered.

2.If you do continue to use this website, the Webmaster would also like you to agree with the following Terms and Conditions:

2a. All materials published within this website are available for you to download and store for personal use only. The materials published should not be reproduced or used for profit without the written consent of the Webmaster or any relevant operator/authority.

2b. Any sections, information or materials published on this website may be withdrawn or suspended at any time without any prior notice and without any reason from the Webmaster.

2c. WMBT cannot be held responsible for any errors or discrepancies that might be published within this website.

2d. Any links from this site to any external websites are provided in good faith and WMBT or the Webmaster cannot be held responsible for any data or information that external websites contain.

2e. All information and materials published within this site are provided with good faith. Some materials published within this website are from external sources or have been provided from the general public in good faith. If you have any reason to believe that any materials published may have violated your or any copyrights, please contact the Webmaster who will be happy to sort out any discrepancies or remove any offending materials published.

2f. All materials and media in this website are tested by the Webmaster before being published to the website, for use by the general public. WMBT or the Webmaster cannot be held responsible for any problems to your hardware, or other programs installed on your computer or any of your electronic devices, which may have been caused by the downloading of material from this website.
